

Hi Dean Dziwlik,

You are aware of my situation and I am asking for flexibility for all of my classes and my schedule. You should have all of my professors names from a previous email.

Thanks,

Hi [REDACTED] and Martha,

As you both know, [REDACTED] has expressed a need for academic adjustments. [REDACTED], as I shared with you in my email a moment ago and in our previous meetings, Martha makes these requests to faculty to provide an extra layer of privacy, because she regularly makes these requests for many different reasons.

I will leave it to the two of you to discuss this further. Please let me know if you have any questions or need anything else from me.

Thanks,
Maria

Hi [REDACTED]

It's my understanding that Dr. Magnus has reached out to you to schedule a time to meet. I'll leave it to you and him to take next steps.

If you need anything else from me, please let me know.

Thanks,
Maria

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for your email. I've reached out to the director of Counseling and Consultation Services, Dr. Magnus, to let him know you would like to speak to a counselor today. He told me that he will look at counselors' schedules and let me know. Once I hear from him, I'll get back to you.

I also wanted to remind you about other resources that are available. When we met on Friday, I let you know that if you would like to change your housing situation or assistance with asking faculty members for grace and flexibility, you can let me know. On Friday, you said that you didn't need help with either of those things right now. If that has changed, please let me know, and I can connect you with those resources.

Thanks,
Maria
